Paquete 3 de actividades para el hogar del estudiante

Este Paquete de actividades para el hogar está organizado como una serie de notas. Cada nota tiene dos partes. En la parte 1, el estudiante escribe respondiendo a una instrucción. En la parte 2, completa una lección del Manual de lenguaje y practica la habilidad en el contexto de lo que escribió en la parte 1. Se recomienda que el estudiante complete una parte cada día.

La mayoría de las lecciones las pueden completar independientemente. Sin embargo, hay algunas lecciones que pueden requerir el apoyo de un adulto. Si no hay un adulto disponible, no hay por qué preocuparse. Simplemente pasen a la siguiente lección.

Anime a su estudiante a trabajar lo mejor que pueda con este contenido. Lo más importante es que continúe trabajando en sus habilidades de escritura y de lenguaje.

Guía para este paquete:

Parte 1:

- Lee la instrucción de escritura.
- Si es necesario, usa marcos de oración para comenzar a escribir.

Parte 2:

- Completa la Guided Practice.
- Completa la Independent Practice.
- Responde a la instrucción de "Try It".

Capitalizing Names of Places and Things

Introduction You know that a common noun names any person, place, or thing. A proper noun names a particular person, place, or thing. Remember to capitalize proper nouns. When a proper noun contains more than one word, begin each important word with a capital letter.

Places	Things
West Park Avenue	Veterans Day
Durham	Pen and Pencil Company, Inc.
Hanging Rock State Park	Green Bay Packers
United States of America	Saturday
Asia	February

₩ Guided Practice

Write each sentence correctly. Add capital letters where they are needed.

We have a big party in our town on the fourth of july.

HINT When you write the name of a place or thing, do not capitalize small words, such as a, and, or of.

Before the holiday, people put up flags along kinsman drive.
This july, the event will begin on monday afternoon.

There will be fireworks that night in eagle creek park.

 - C Last year we went to my aunt's house on scudder St. in Amarillo.
 - D Last year we went to my aunt's house on Scudder st. in amarillo.

Try It Reread what you wrote in Part 1 and underline the names of places. Then, check to see if any of the places are proper nouns. Did you capitalize those places? Remember, a proper noun is a particular person, place, or thing.

You awake from a strange dream. You hear your pets talking to each other. The crazy thing is that you can understand what they are saying. Write a dialogue between your pets.

Punctuating Direct Quotations

Using a direct quotation, or a person's exact words, can help make your writing come alive. You can write the exact words of a character in a story, or you can write what someone in real life has said or written. Use quotation marks ("") before and after the exact words of a speaker or author.

• A direct quotation can come at the beginning of a sentence.

"I can't wait to see the Washington Monument!" said Elena.

• A direct quotation can also come at the end of a sentence. Use a comma (,) to separate the beginning of the sentence from the quotation.

Author Rachel White wrote, "The Washington Monument is one of the most popular tourist attractions in the United States."

• Use quotation marks only when you are showing a person's exact words, not when you are explaining what the person said.

Nathan said, "I look forward to the trip to Washington."

Nathan said that he looks forward to the trip to Washington.

Guided Practice

Add the correct punctuation where it is needed in each sentence.

HINT Be sure the end punctuation after a speaker's words is inside the quotation marks.

Example:

Len asked, "Where have you been?" "I've been right here!" I shouted.

- 1 I'm almost ready to go! exclaimed Kris.
- 2 Mr. Mendez said Before we go, we need to learn about the Washington Monument.
- 3 Why did they build the monument? Alva asked.
- 4 Kris replied It was built to honor George Washington.
- The monument is a symbol of his leadership wrote author Rachel White.

 - В The tour guide said "The monument is more than 555 feet tall."
 - C The tour guide said, The monument is more than 555 feet tall.
 - D The tour guide, said "The monument is more than 555 feet tall."

 - Author Carter Bailey wrote More than 500,000 visitors go to the top of the monument in most years.

Try It Review the dialogue you wrote between your pets in Part 1. Look for the correct punctuation and the use of quotation marks. If you left any punctuation or quotation marks off, add them in.

Read each sentence. Write R for run-on sentence or C for correct. Fix the run-on sentences by adding a conjunction or by dividing the thoughts into two sentences.

Precise Words and Phrases

Introduction What is the difference between a dog and a puppy? Maybe 10 years! If you just used the term dog, a reader would never know you meant a brown bulldog puppy. It is important to choose words and phrases that tell precisely the meaning you wish to convey.

• Using precise words helps to convey your ideas exactly as you intended.

Vague: Parts of Hawaii have been	Precise: Wetlands of Hawaii have disappearing.	been disappearing.

• Using precise phrases will help readers picture and understand what you mean.

Vague: Many fruits grow in Hawaii.	Precise: Tropical pineapples, mangos, and bananas grow in Hawaii.

Read each sentence. Circle the word or phrase that conveys a more precise meaning for the vague underlined words. Tell a partner what additional information each phrase adds to the original sentence.

which word or phrase best helps you to picture or understand what is being described.

Punctuation for Effect

Introduction You know that a sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. Sentences can end with a period (,), a question mark (?), or an exclamation point (!). Using a variety of sentence types will make your writing more interesting to read.

Sentence Type	Example
Statement	Summer is my favorite time of year.
Question	What season do you like best?
Exclamation	This summer, I went white-water rafting!
Command	Tell me when you get my photos.

Instead of beginning a report with a statement, try beginning with a question.
 Statement: At the end of the summer, we went kayaking.

Question: Have you ever tried kayaking on a hot summer day?

• If you want to express strong emotion, consider writing an exclamation instead of a statement.

Statement: Kayaking is an exciting sport.

Exclamation: What an exciting sport kayaking is!

Guided Practice

Rewrite each sentence as either a question or an exclamation. Tell a partner how the change in punctuation changes the meaning of the sentence.

HINT Think about how the end punctuation you choose will affect the way the reader "hears" your sentences and understands your meaning.

1 You all must we	ear lifejackets. (question)
-------------------	-----------------------------

- 2 Kayaking is easy to learn. (question)
- There are rocks ahead. (exclamation)
- 4 I enjoy kayaking. (exclamation)

Read the passage on kayaking. For numbers 1–3, choose the most effective way to rewrite the sentences.

(1) I like nature and adventure. (2) Kayaking is a great way to experience both. (3) We set out on a sunny clear day. (4) It was easy paddling, and we were having a good time. (5) Someone shouted, "Rocks ahead." (6) Then I shouted back. (7) "Can you move to the left of them now?" (8) We were lucky to escape the rocks. (9) Suddenly, I saw lightning and heard a huge clap of thunder. "Oh no, we're going to be struck by lightning!"

- 1 Which rewrite of sentence 1 makes the most engaging opening?
 - A You like nature, and you like adventure.
 - B Do you like nature and adventure?
 - C You should like nature and adventure.
 - D What about nature and adventure?
- Which rewrite of sentence 5 shows strong emotion?
 - A Someone shouted, "Rocks Ahead."
 - B Someone shouted, "Rocks ahead?"
 - C Someone shouted, "Rocks ahead!"
 - D Someone shouted that rocks were ahead.

- Which rewrite of sentence 7 best gives the effect of a command, or orders?
 - A "You could now move to the left of them."
 - B "Move to the left of them now."
 - C "Why not move to the left of them now?"
 - D "You would now move to the left of them."
- ► Try It Reread your writing from Part 1. Revise the beginning of your writing so that you ask a question. Revise one sentence so that it conveys your strong emotions.

Lesson 20 Idioms

Introduction Have you ever been "in hot water"? When you hear these words, you might think about taking a hot bath. Or you might think about being in trouble. Phrases in English sometimes have more than one meaning.

• An idiom is an expression whose meaning is different from the meaning of its individual words. The idiom up to my ears means "very busy with."

I was up to my ears in homework when my friend Mai called.

• The phrase up to my ears has a literal meaning, too. The meaning of the phrase is the same as the meaning of the individual words.

I was chilly, so I pulled my sweater up to my ears.

Guided Practice

HINT If an idiom doesn't make sense, use context clues to help you understand it. Sometimes you can also find the meaning of idioms in a dictionary.

Read each sentence. Underline the idiom. Then circle the correct meaning of the idiom.

- I knew Mai would talk my ear off if she had the chance.

- Try It Look for places in your writing where you can use an idiom. Remember, idioms are unique ways of saying something, such as "hold your horses."
 When you say that, you really mean "wait a minute."

If you could start a new city, where would you start it? Maybe in outer space or under the ocean? Maybe in your state or in a different country? Write about your new city. Write about where it is and explain what kinds of places you can find in your new city.

Synonyms and Antonyms

Words in English can have meanings that are similar or different. If you know how two words are related, you can sometimes use the meaning of a word you already know to understand the meaning of an unfamiliar word.

• A synonym is a word that has the same or almost the same meaning as another word. The words select and choose are synonyms.

I try to select foods from all five food groups.

I often seem to choose the same foods, though.

• An antonym is a word that has the opposite meaning of another word. The words forget and remember are antonyms.

Sometimes I forget to eat different kinds of vegetables.

I need to remember to vary my diet.

• If you find yourself using the same word again and again, replace the repeated word with a synonym. This will make your writing more interesting.

₩ Guided Practice

HINT You can use a thesaurus to find synonyms and antonyms for many words. Sometimes a dictionary also lists synonyms and antonyms.

Read each sentence. Write S next to the synonym for the underlined word. Write A next to the antonym.

1	I made a large salad	with many	vegetables.
