Writing and Language

Teacher At-Home Activity Packet 3

This At-Home Activity Packet is organized as a series of journal entries. Each entry has two parts. In part 1, the student writes in response to a prompt. In part 2, the student completes a Language Handbook lesson and practices the skill in the context of their writing from part 1. We recommend that the student completes one part each day.

Most lessons can be completed independently. However, there are some lessons that would benefit from the support of an adult. If there is not an adult available to help, don't worry! Just skip those lessons.

Although we are providing an Answer Key, we would like to emphasize that it is effort that matters most, and not how many questions a student gets right or wrong. Encourage the student to do the best they can with this content. The most important thing is that they continue to work on their writing and language skills.

Directions for this packet:

Part 1:

- Read the writing prompt.
- If needed, use the sentence frames to help you get started writing.

Part 2:

- Complete Guided Practice.
- Complete Independent Practice.
- Complete the Try It prompt.

Lesson 13

Combining Sentences

Introduction Good writers avoid strings of short, choppy sentences. You can combine sentences with related ideas to vary sentence style and length.

- When the ideas in sentences are related and equally important, you can join them with a coordinating conjunction, such as and, but, or, or so. Use a comma before the conjunction if each idea is a complete sentence.

Choppy: Our class is putting on a play. I want to be the lion.

Better: Our class is putting on a play, and I want to be the lion.

Choppy: I love to perform. I get nervous. I breathe deeply to relax.

Better: I love to perform but get nervous, so I breathe deeply to relax.

- When one idea is more important than the other, you can join them with a subordinating conjunction such as when, because, although, or unless. If the clause with the conjunction comes first in the new sentence, use a comma after that clause.

Choppy: I'll be very excited tomorrow. I find out which part I got.

Better: I'll be very excited tomorrow when I find out which part I got.

Choppy: Owen usually gets the lead part. He has a great voice.

Better: Because Owen has a great voice, he usually gets the lead part.

Guided Practice

Underline the pairs of sentences you would combine. Then rewrite the paragraph on another sheet of paper. Use all of the conjunctions in the box.

HINT You can use a conjunction to combine sentences. You can also use a conjunction to combine just the subjects or the predicates of two sentences.

or when although so and

We needed a dog to play Toto. My terrier Angus got the part. Angus trotted onto the stage. We all knew a star was born. Angus had never been in a play. I wasn't sure how he would behave. He might follow directions. He might just run off the stage. Luckily, Angus was perfect. He didn't like sitting in Dorothy's basket!

 Independent Practice

For numbers 1–5, choose the best way to combine each pair of sentences.

- 1 Lori is creative. She was in charge of building the set.
- A Lori is creative, because she was in charge of building the set.
 - B Lori is creative but was in charge of building the set.
 - C Lori is creative, so she was in charge of building the set.
 - D Although Lori is creative, she was in charge of building the set.
- 2 The Emerald City was hard to make. It all had to be green.
- A The Emerald City was hard to make, so it all had to be green.
 - B When the Emerald City was hard to make, it all had to be green.
 - C The Emerald City was hard to make because it all had to be green.
 - D The Emerald City was hard to make, or it all had to be green.
- 3 The curtain finally rose. The audience gasped.
- A When the curtain finally rose, the audience gasped.
 - B The curtain finally rose, but the audience gasped.
 - C The curtain finally rose, unless the audience gasped.
 - D Although the curtain finally rose, the audience gasped.
- 4 Green lights cast a strange glow. They made the set look scary.
- A Green lights cast a strange glow, but they made the set look scary.
 - B Green lights cast a strange glow and made the set look scary.
 - C Green lights cast a strange glow or made the set look scary.
 - D Green lights cast a strange glow unless they made the set look scary.
- 5 Now nothing could go wrong. The set collapsed!
- A Now nothing could go wrong, and the set collapsed!

- Try It Reread what you wrote in Part 1. Combine any choppy sentences by using what you have learned about conjunctions.

Lesson 1

Coordinating and Subordinating Conjunctions

Introduction

A conjunction is a word used to connect words, phrases, or clauses.

- Coordinating conjunctions connect words, phrases, or clauses of equal importance.

Coordinating	When to Use	Example
and	to add information	Many animals live in places with plenty of food and water.
but	to show a difference	Deer eat many plants but still do not always get enough food.
or	to show a choice	They know that finding food is a matter of life or death.
so	to show cause and effect	They need more food, so they move on in search of it.

- Subordinating conjunctions are used to connect a dependent clause to another clause. A dependent clause has a subject and a predicate but cannot stand alone.

Subordinating	When to Use	Example
because	to explain why	Raccoons don't mind living in populated areas because they aren't afraid of people.
before, during, when, while	to show time	When deer cannot find food in their natural habitats, they will often go looking for it in people's yards.
although, unless	to show contrast	Although some animals avoid living near humans, other animals are comfortable being near people.

Guided Practice

Write a conjunction from the box to complete each sentence.

HINT If you're not certain which conjunction to use in a sentence, try each one.

unless and when although so

- 1 All animals need food, water, _____ shelter to survive.
- 2 _____ these are available, animals can thrive.
- 3 _____ opossums can live in just about any habitat, elk are very particular about where they live.

Lesson 6

Shifts in Verb Tense

 Introduction Verbs tell readers that something is happening. Verb tenses can show whether an event takes place in the past, in the present, or in the future.

When you write, choose the tense that shows clearly the time of the action. Verb tenses that shift can confuse readers, so change tense only if you want to show a change in time.

Verb Tenses Shifting Incorrectly	Verb Tenses Shifting Correctly
We went to the movies last Saturday. The movie is a comedy and was very funny. We had eaten popcorn during the movie, but we often stop so we will hear every word.	We went to the movies last Saturday. The movie was a comedy and was very funny. We ate popcorn during the movie, but we often stopped so we could hear every word.

 Guided Practice

Read the passage. It should be written in the past tense. Cross out each verb that should be changed to make the tenses consistent. Then write the correct verb above each verb you crossed out.

HINT Look for clues that tell when events happen. Do they occur in the past, present, or future?

Then look at each verb and ask yourself:

- What tense is the verb?
- Does it match the tense of the other verbs?

Jake went to the movies with Mario last week. They see the film Frontiers of Space. Tickets for the show that night were expensive, but Mario has a coupon. He finds the coupon online the day before. Mario will buy the tickets. Then he looked for seats while Jake purchases the snacks. Jake gets popcorn for himself and a pretzel for Mario. They will have sat in the front row, watched the movie, and enjoy themselves.

 Independent Practice

For numbers 1–5, replace the underlined sentence with the choice that has the correct verb tense.

- 1 Ari went to the movies last Friday afternoon. She sit in the third row. The screen looked huge from there.
 - A She is sitting in the third row.
 - B She had sat in the third row.

 - B The action in the second part is really exciting.
 - C The action in the second part will have been really exciting.

Lesson 3

Interjections

Introduction An interjection is a word or words that express emotion, such as excitement, surprise, disbelief, understanding, or disagreement.

- When an interjection shows strong emotion, such as anger, shock, or excitement, it stands alone and is followed by an exclamation point.

Oh, no! I can't find my ticket.

Wow! That was an incredible movie.

- When an interjection shows less emotion, it comes at the beginning of a sentence and is followed by a comma.

Well, I'm not sure it was the best movie I've ever seen.

- Here are more examples of common interjections.

Interjection	When to Use	Example
oops	to show a mistake	Oops, I left my phone in the theater.
oh	to show shock or another thought	Oh! We should go back and get it right away.
hey	to show a thought or discovery	Hey, here it is in my coat pocket.
yay	to show happiness or excitement	Yay! We don't have to go back to the theater.
whew	to show relief	Whew! That's a relief.

Guided Practice

HINT When an interjection is followed by an exclamation point, it should begin with a capital letter.

- _____! We made it just in time for the movie.
- _____! I forgot to bring my wallet.
- _____, I can loan you money for a ticket.
- _____! I just found some money in my pocket.

- B to show understanding
- C to show surprise
- D to show relief

3 Oh, I think we are doing chores tomorrow.

- B to show surprise
- C to show another thought
- D to show relief

For numbers 4 and 5, choose the example that is punctuated correctly.

4 A Wow! That was a very scary movie.

B Wow that was a very scary movie.

C Wow that, was a very scary movie.

D Wow! That was, a very, scary, movie.

5 A Well I wasn't very scared.

B Well! I wasn't very scared.

C Well, I wasn't very scared.

D Well I, wasn't very scared.

► Try It Reread your story. Find places where you could add interjections to make your story more exciting and interesting.

Lesson 9

Commas After Introductory Elements

 Introduction Good writers vary the beginnings of their sentences to make their writing more interesting. When you write, use a comma (,) to set off an introductory word or phrase from the rest of the sentence.

- Use a comma after introductory words such as yes and no.

Yes, Victor was looking forward to the race in Chile.

No, it wouldn't be easy to run across the Atacama Desert.

- Use a comma after a dependent clause that comes at the beginning of a sentence. A dependent clause can begin with a subordinating conjunction such as while or because.

While on the plane ride to Chile, Victor thought about the race.

Because he had trained hard, he was in great shape.

- Use a comma after a prepositional phrase that comes at the beginning of a sentence.

Under the blazing sun, more than 100 people would race for seven days.

Guided Practice

Read the passage. Then add commas where they are needed.

HINT Some sentences begin with two prepositional phrases in a row. There is usually a comma only after the second prepositional phrase.

Example:
Under the shade of a tree, the runner rested.

Victor was standing in the driest place on Earth. In some parts of the Atacama Desert not a single drop of water had been seen for decades. On his back Victor's gear seemed especially heavy. He had food, clothes, and water for the next 250 kilometers. Could he make it? Yes he could.

While he waited for the race to begin Victor's heart pounded. Above the desert wispy clouds crossed the deep blue sky.

 Independent Practice

For numbers 1–5, choose the correct way to rewrite the underlined part of each sentence.

- 1 At the end of the first day Victor collapsed in his tent.

A At the end, of the first day Victor
B At the end of the first day, Victor
C At the end of the first day, Victor,

D When he finally reached the finish line, he

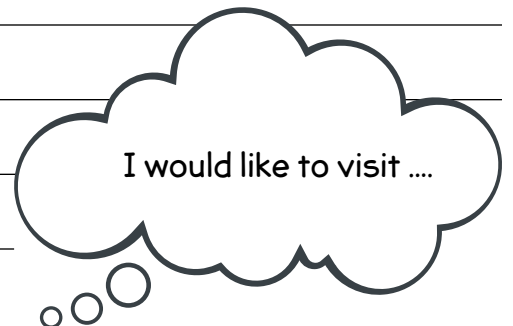

- 5 Yes he had achieved the goal of a lifetime.

A Yes he had, achieved
B Yes, he had achieved,
C Yes, he had achieved
D Yes, he had, achieved

► Try It Reread what you wrote in Part 1. Use what you just learned about commas to make your sentences more interesting for readers.

Lesson 8

Punctuating Items in a Series

Introduction Use a comma (,) to separate three or more items in a series, or list. Place a comma after each item in the series except the last one.

- Use commas when you list three or more words in a series.

Many murals decorate buildings in Philadelphia, Chicago, and Boston.

- Use commas when you list three or more phrases in a series.

People paint murals on buildings, in tunnels, and even along roadsides.

- Use commas when you list three or more clauses in a series.

You might see a mural when visiting a museum, driving on a highway, or walking around your neighborhood.

Without commas, the items in these lists would run together, making the sentences unclear.

Guided Practice

Read the passage. Then add commas where they are needed.

HINT When you use commas to separate items in a series, put a comma before the conjunction and or or. Do not put a comma after the conjunction.

Cities around the country are changing. Faded boards dull concrete and old bricks are coming to life. Communities are turning the walls of their buildings roads and bridges into colorful murals. Painters might show local scenes honor a hero or celebrate a culture.

Murals can also be great projects for schools. They encourage teamwork school spirit and creativity. What would you paint? Your mural could inspire people to recycle be a volunteer or cheer for a team.

 Independent Practice

For numbers 1–4, answer the questions.

- 1 Read this sentence. Then answer the question.

Three famous artists who painted murals were Rivera Orozco and Siquieros.

Lesson 14

Varieties of English: Dialect and Register

Introduction

There are many ways to speak English. You speak informally with your friends but formally to your principal. You use words common to the time and place in which you live. Fiction writers often make their characters speak different varieties of English.

- Dialect is how a group in a specific place and time speaks. Below, a young man tells his story in dialect. He uses language spoken in towns along the Mississippi River in the 1800s.

Dialect	Standard English
"You don't know about me without you have read a book by the name of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer ; but that ain't no matter."	"You wouldn't know about me unless you've read a book called The Adventures of Tom Sawyer , but that's all right."

- Register is how people speak in different situations. When you talk to a friend, you probably use the informal language of everyday speech. When you give an oral report, however, you are more careful about the language you use. Your language is formal.

Informal	Formal
"This experiment is so messed up. We don't know what's up!"	"We're having trouble with this experiment. We can't figure it out!"

Guided Practice

With a partner, read aloud the conversation below. Then, on a separate piece of paper, rewrite the dialogue as if it were a formal discussion between Jason and his coach.

"Okay, dude. You gotta get your head in the game," Scott said.

"I hear they got a pretty heavy guy pitching today. And there ain't no ties—only one team can win," Jason answered.

"You're not worried, are you? You're an ace hitter!" said Scott.

"I ain't scared, dude," Jason mumbled. "I just need to chill."

HINT Informal language includes slang terms such as dude, ace, and ain't. As you read, underline any slang you need to change for a more formal dialogue.

Independent Practice

This dialogue from The Adventures of Tom Sawyer is written in dialect. Tom is whitewashing a fence when his friend Ben Rogers comes along. Rewrite this dialogue as if two friends were talking today.

- 1 BEN: Hello, old chap, you got to work today, hey?
TOM: Why, it's you Ben! I warn't noticing.

- 2 BEN: Say, I'm going in a-swimming, I am. Don't you wish you could? But of course you'd druther work—wouldn't you? Course you would!

- 3 TOM: What do you call work?
BEN: Why, ain't that work?
TOM: Well, maybe it is and maybe it ain't. All I know is, it suits Tom Sawyer.

- Try It Look back at your story from Part 1. Add in dialogue that is informal and some that is formal.

PART 1

Lesson 5

Using Verb Tenses

Introduction

Use the correct verb tense to tell readers when something happens.

- Use simple tenses to show that an action happens in the present, past, or future. The simple past tense is usually formed by adding the ending -ed.

Present	We listen to music on our MP3 players or cell phones.
Past	Years ago, people listened to music on record players.
Future	Someday, people will listen to music on other devices.

- Irregular verbs change in special ways to show past time.

Present	buy	sell	break	become	sing	go
Past	bought	sold	broke	became	sang	went

- Progressive tenses show continuing actions in the present, past, or future. To make the progressive tense, add a form of the helping verb be to a main verb that ends in -ing.

Present	A radio station is playing a song by a great singer.
Past	Earlier, the station was playing another song by her.
Future	Tomorrow, her band will be playing music in the park.

Guided Practice

Circle the correct form of the verb to complete each sentence.

HINT

In progressive tenses, the helping verb must agree with the subject.

- Use am and was with I.
- Use is and was with he, she, it, and singular nouns.
- Use are and were with we, you, they, and plural nouns.

- Every day when I wake up, I _____ on my MP3 player.
turn will be turning turned
- Yesterday, I _____ a song when I dropped the MP3 player.
am choosing were choosing was choosing
- The music _____ and would not start again.
is stopping stopped will stop
- I said to my mother, "I _____ my MP3 player!"
break is breaking broke
- I _____ money for a long time to buy a new one.
are saving will be saving will be save

 Independent Practice

For numbers 1–5, replace the underlined verb with the word or words that make the sentence correct.

- 1 In the late 1990s and early 2000s, portable MP3 players becoming popular.

A will become
B will be becoming
C became D was becoming

- 2 Soon after that, people download music from the Internet.

A were downloading
B is downloading
C will be downloading

C listened
D are listening

- 4 Next month, my class go on a field trip to the Music History Museum.

A be going

Lesson 12

Revising Sentences

Introduction

Good writers revise their writing to make sure their ideas grab and hold a reader's attention. There are many ways to revise sentences to improve them.

- You can expand a sentence by adding details that make the sentence more interesting.

Add Details	Weak: Hula is a beautiful Hawaiian dance. Better: With its pulsing drums and flowing steps, hula is a beautiful Hawaiian dance.
--------------------	---

- You can shorten a sentence by deleting unnecessary words or cutting repetition. Short sentences get to the point. They also create rhythm when mixed with longer sentences.

Delete Words	Weak: I'll start by saying that I think the dancers move like swaying palm trees. Better: The dancers move like swaying palm trees.
Avoid Repetition	Weak: Hula is fairly simple and not difficult because it is a dance based on just six basic moves that dancers do. Better: Hula is fairly simple because it is based on just six moves.

Improve each sentence by adding details, deleting words, or avoiding repetition. If you need to add details, use facts from the tables above.

- Hula is a dance.

Figurative Language

Introduction

Writers use figurative language, including similes and metaphors, to help readers imagine what one thing is like by comparing it to something else.

- A simile compares two or more things using the words like or as. The table below contains two sentences with similes. It then explains what those similes mean.

Simile	What It Means
Noah stood as still as a rabbit trying not to be seen.	Noah stood very still.
The world around him was like a beautiful movie .	Noah saw beautiful things happening all around him.

- A metaphor compares two or more things without using the words like or as. In the metaphor below, the clouds are compared to sailing ships.

Metaphor	What It Means
White clouds were ships sailing across the sky.	The clouds moved like ships across the sky.

Guided Practice
